NEW ORLEANS, LA– Deloitte and Touche staff celebrated their annual IMPACT Day volunteering at Kingsley House on June 11th.

Volunteers helped with landscaping, initial preparations for a future soccer field, preschool activities, and adult day care. Kingsley House thanks Deloitte and Touche for their tremendous support. “We did not have enough staff to accomplish some of these tasks and we are so grateful,” said Kingsley House Director of Support Services Libby Milton. Deloitte covered the cost of supplies for the various projects on campus.

Deloitte’s IMPACT Day is a one-day celebration of its year-round commitment to helping people and local communities. IMPACT Day provides Deloitte’s people a chance to contribute to their communities, but also provides them with invaluable opportunities to develop important skills such as leadership, teamwork and networking opportunities. Deloitte chose Kingsley House because it wanted to make an impact on an organization that itself makes such an impact in the community.
